"THE STRUGGLE IS REAL"

Psalm 13

We find ourselves in this same situation as David wherein he was yearning for help from God and believing that help was on the way. He was doubtful yet believing at the same time. In this Psalm, David was still under the persecution of Saul and was getting tired of no relief. He protests against God's forgetting him—he prays to prevail against his enemy—he praises against his initial feelings.
